Mr. & Mrs. Mandley

Hello Mr. & Mrs. Mandley. This is Emmett Wilson, I wrote you last year & you promised to give me a job on your club. I have been playing with the Black Barons this season. I came home to see my wife and could not join the club when they sent for me to come back. I have my release from them & like to join you at once as I told you last year I wanted to play with your club. I am a switch hitter & rated to be very fast. Dan Wilson, who hit the home run in Chicago East-West game in 1939 is my brother. I would like to play with your club as I have some people there. Let me hear from you at once as I will join a club here in this League if you cant give me a job. You have a player from Birmingham on your club he can tell you of my playing. Last season I played with Satchell Paige all stars. Dont have to set my salary until you see my playing. I didnt quit the club and the reason they gave my release because I couldnt report because my wife was sick.

You can set my salary after you see my playing. Hits on both ^{sides} rated to be very fast. Was leading off for Birmingham. Emmett Wilson
